Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Sinfonia Concertante in E-flat major K.364/320d for ~~Violin~~ Viola & Piano

arr. J. Freckleton Sturla
2026

based on a version arr. H. Sitt & ed. C. Herrmann

Close your eyes and feel my hand on your shoulder.
A viola player and a mother

And so, exulting as the moonlit rocks fled by him, exulting as the tears streamed over his face - with his eyes fixed excitedly upon the blurred horizon and the battering of the hoof-beats loud in his ears,
Titus rode out of his world.
Mervin Peake - 'Gormenghast

I inhale great draughts of space,
The east and the west are mine, and the north and the south are mine.
I am larger, better than I thought,
I did not know I held so much goodness.
Walt Whitman — 'Song of the Open Road'

Love you all, be good.
See you (until then, fear not)
on the other side.
A pianist and a son

Note: the J rehearsal mark seems to have been erroneously omitted in the Sitt—Hermann Peters edition.
We have placed it here because of the short interlude it provides between sections I and K.
